The agent of the Associated Press in Cincinnati must be sick, asleep, or gone a journey. Dispatches from the East appeared in the Cincinnati papers yesterday which did not reach us until 10 o'clock yesterday morning. They were of some importance, and ought to have been sent forward the night before, so that they might have appeared in our paper of yesterday morning simultaneously with the Cincinnati papers. This kind of mistake occurs too frequently, and is a serious loss to the Louisville papers. To have the same news in the Cincinnati papers sold on our streets at the same time it appears in our evening papers, if not a little before, is very awkward, to say the least of it.

RELEASED POLITICAL PRISONERS—Henry Farrell, David Riley, Benjamin Riley, Lewis Paine, John J. Platt, George Gibbs, and Correll, all of whom were confined in the military prison of Congress for a week or two past, have been released upon taking the oath and executing bonds in the sum of $8,000 each for their future good behavior. Wesley Rice and Joshua Rice, also of Boone, were committed to the prison on Tuesday, charged with disloyal practices.

In several sections of the country the rust is injuring the oats crop. The crop generally is short in this section of the country.

An old lady named Mrs. Russell was killed at Indianapolis, Ind., on Wednesday, by being thrown from a buggy.

Court of Appeals.

CARNEY DECIDED. White vs. Booker, Sheriff, affirmed. Bayne vs. Hershman, Shelby, affirmed. Neal vs. Hershman, Shelby, reversed. The verdict of the jury in the case of White vs. Booker, Sheriff, was affirmed. The verdict of the jury in the case of Bayne vs. Hershman, Shelby, was affirmed. The verdict of the jury in the case of Neal vs. Hershman, Shelby, was reversed.

SALE OF GOVERNMENT HORSES.—We took a trip to Oakland yesterday to witness the sale of condemned horses. Such a game lot of broken-winded, spavined, never-got, swelled-leg horses were, perhaps, never got on the same space of ground. Crippled and disabled as they were, there were hundreds of purchasers on hand, and the horses brought all they were worth. Uncle Sam suffers in horse-flesh terribly in war times. The sooner these cripples are off his hands the better.

It is hard to tell what to believe in the way of war news and army movements just now. When a thing is asserted one day it is generally denied the next, but the truth comes along after while in such a confused manner that even then we often are slow to accredit it. We shall doubtless here learn the exact whereabouts of Gen. Hooker and Gen. Lee. At present it would puzzle a Philadelphia lawyer to tell where they are.

MALE HIGH SCHOOL.—The exhibition of the Male High School to-night, in Masonic Temple, promises to equal that of the Female High School last night—and that is saying a great deal, for a more interesting occasion we have seldom witnessed, or one that more deeply impressed the crowded audience. We would suggest that many of the younger children be left at home so as to give room for adults.

MORGAN AGAIN.—We are informed that news—most positive this time—was in the city last night to the effect that Morgan is again, and this time without a shade of doubt, on this side of the Cumberland, and making his way into Kentucky. We give the statement for what it is worth, but expect to contradict it this evening or to-morrow.

BENNETT OF GEORGE FULLER.—This is the last night but one of the theatrical season, and on this occasion the performances are for the benefit of the manager, Mr. Fuller will appear in his favorite character of Smike, in Nicholas Nickleby, and the entire bill is one which should draw a crowded house.

A citizen of Warrick county, Ind., residing near Booneville, Adam Bender by name, was found hanging to a tree in a field where he had been plowing, on Wednesday last. He had been unusually melancholy for about ten days previous, but no specific cause is assigned for his committing suicide.

MELODIONS.—The melodions manufactured by Nordin & Son are certainly among the best we have ever seen; and we advise those wishing to obtain a first-class instrument to call at McCarroll's music store and examine for themselves.

Some thirty entered the steamer Lady Franklin on Wednesday night and robbed a number of the passengers of what money and other valuables they had. One man lost fifty-seven dollars.

By arrivals in the city last night we have information of great moment from Rosecrans army, but we cannot report for its reliability, and if we could, would not just at this time.

Mrs. Mason, of Logan county, who was arrested some time ago, and has since been in this city on parole, was yesterday released by order of General Burnside.

We direct the attention of our readers to the ordinances regulating the collection of city, railroad and water taxes, etc., and fixing the compensation therefor.

A fleet of boats arrived here yesterday from the Tennessee river, loaded with railroad iron captured by our forces at Florence, Alabama.

A slight accident occurred on the Ohio and Mississippi railroad yesterday morning, which detained the St. Louis train until noon.

Did ever the oldest inhabitant experience such weather in the month of June? cold one day—hot the next.

The train for the Nashville railroad arrived on time last night. All quiet along the line.

Hon. Aaron Harding, the Administration candidate, is invited to attend, and divide time, speaking hour, and if he wants to abstain, running his back track as heretofore, he will be held responsible for the vote, who voted against "pay nine months" in the army, because of Lincoln's proclamation, and now assume any position—orators Rigney and Pelley, or orator Biddle, who, in his speech for Mr. Harding, said he was all right, and the negro of the North and the negro of the South in our army.

I want all my friends—aye, the whole people to meet me at these appointments. I have been greatly misrepresented and slandered. Come on! Come on!
